Sample Evacuation Agreement

Between _____ and _____ Hospital
Whereas _____ and _____ mutually agree that each party can accommodate, in a coordinated and cooperative fashion, each others residents/patients in the event of unforeseen disaster, where either facility must evacuate its residents from the premises.

This agreement does not obligate the other facility to provide services/supplies for the evacuated residents without compensation. The facility whose residents are displaced will be responsible for providing medications, medical records, medical supplies, nutritional items, linens, and staff members as they are able -- or paying to the actual provider of the goods and services the cost of same (to include such items as listed above, but not limited to the above listed items) upon presentation of a bill from the provider of goods and services.
